One block from St. Clement's Church

Two blocks from Academy of Science and neighbor of the Franklin Institute

Seven blocks from downtown Philadelphia

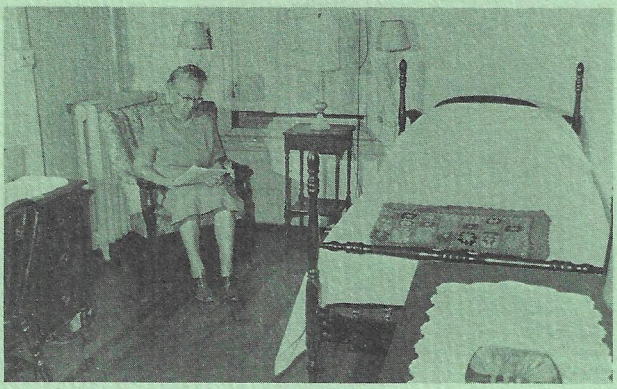
REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION:

Applicants 65-80 years of age.
Women in good standing in their Parishes.
Rector's recommendation necessary.

Recent Medical Examination.

EXPENSES:

Cost for living expenses and services will be discussed with the Sister-in-Charge when individuals make application for admission.



A Guest's Room

St. Anna's is primarily a boarding Home. If hospitalization is required for acute or extended illness, arrangements will be made.

As soon as special nursing care is no longer needed, the resident would return to her home, St. Anna's.

The Rector of St. Clement's Church is Chaplain of the Home where there is a weekly celebration of the Eucharist. The Eucharist is scheduled daily at St. Clement's.

There is a resident nurse. One may retain one's personal doctor and medical contacts if preferred.
